BUCKSKIN LEDGE OPENED AGAIN BY THE NATIONAL

NATIONAL MINES COMPANY HAS RICH ORE IN ITS LOWEST WORKINGS.

NATIONAL, Nev., June 11.—The National Mines company has struck a large body of rich gold and silver ore in its lower workings known as Nos. 6 and 7. No. 7 shows a great increase in both size and values over No. 6. This company has just sent out a large amount of bullion which was taken out during the past month. P. G. Harrison, who is in charge of the National mines, is preparing to do a great deal of development work during the summer. Several mining men who have noticed the change and improvement shown with depth have been making inquiries for leases. It is reported that within a short time this company will install a large cyanide plant and work all of the upper dumps which were already sampled and shown to be very rich. There is also large quantities of ore in the upper workings which will be worked during the coming year, in addition to what the company will take out from the lower workings.

The Charleston National Mining company is making great headway in the large White Rock tunnel. This company has cut the vein which it had already opened up in its upper workings, and a raise is now being run to tap the bottom of the incline. This will give the company plenty of good air. The vein shows some very good ore and it is the intention of the company to sink on the vein as soon as the connection is made above. The Heines-Baldwin lease has put on an extra shift in their workings and within a short time they will put on more men and work both through the White Rock tunnel and the large tunnel site tunnel, which cuts the same vein about 250 feet higher up. This lease has taken out some very rich ore from their lower workings.

The Hatch lease, which is located upon the Buckskin National Gold Mining company's property, has cut the rich Buckskin vein about thirty feet from the surface. Several samples of rich high-grade ore were brought over from the workings and it is identical with that of the Buckskin National ore from their workings about 2,000 feet to the south of the lease. This opens up the high-grade vein for over 2,000 feet. Mr. Hatch is very much pleased with the showing in his lease.

C. Wiseman has an interest in some very select property, which is located to the south of the Buckskin National Gold Mining company's property, was over his workings during the early part of the week with some fine-looking quartz. It resembles the high-grade quartz and it is believed that with a little depth the extension of the Buckskin vein will be opened up. The names of the different lodes in Mr. Wiseman's group are: the Tampo, Omar and Mahogany.

Andy Kinneberg, of Buckskin, was a visitor to National during Monday. Mr. Kinneberg has some fine property located on the east slope of Buckskin mountain, and he is now having the same surveyed and mapped.

Two new leases have been let on the Buckskin Mary property on Buckskin mountain. This property is located to the north of any adjoining the Buckskin National Gold Mining company's property, from which they are now taking out the high-grade ores.

Good headway is being made on the Staunton-Dunn, the Prout and the Berry leases, all of which are located on the Buckskin National. These leases are all sinking and will cut the Bell vein within a short distance.

TWO RAILWAYS ARE TO BE MADE ONE

LOS ANGELES, June 15.—A major surgical operation, by which two parallel lines of railroad are to be made one, and trackage abandoned whose initial cost was $1,200,000, was decided on today at a conference in this city between officials of the Las Vegas and Tonopah, and Tonopah and Tidewater railways, which was the Bullfrog and Goldfield.

The two roads were built when the Goldfield district was in full bloom, but when the mines began to show disintegration, it was found that one line was not really needed. As mapped out today, about half of the roads between Goldfield and Beatty will be abandoned, and the remaining segments hooked together. The ownership of the new road is a knotty problem, not yet fully determined. Before a final settlement can be had, several stockholders in Europe must be heard from, as well as many in this country.

FLAG DAY DRAWS LARGE CROWD TO ELKS HOME

ANNUAL EVENT ATTENDED BY AN AUDIENCE THAT TAXED CAPACITY OF HALL.

The announcement of flag day exercises at Elks' home drew a large crowd last evening, notwithstanding counter attractions, and the program passed off without any change from the advance notice. Jos. F. Gori, exalted ruler, presided. After a cello solo by Rudolph Parker the ceremonies were introduced by the Liberty bell exercises prescribed by the ritual, the officers building up the bell in the center of the hall by each laying a part in red roses, white lilies and adding the stars. Charles Benson, chaplain, rendered an invocation and the audience sang "Columbia." The history of the flag was read by Brother Walker and then ensued a selection of musical selections in which Rudolph Parker, William Cuddy, Miss Tront, Messrs. Degan, Roach, McGinn and Ethier and Mrs. Lenore Sollender-Hanby took part. Frank Darragh spoke on the flag and Charles De Flon gave a patriotic address. The exercises closed with "America," all present joining in the chorus.

MAY RUN FOR SUPREME COURT.

Judge Ben Colman, of Ely, who spent yesterday in Carson, left last evening for Reno and thence to his home. Before leaving this city the judge was asked if he would be a primary candidate for nomination for the supreme court, to which he replied that he had not yet made up his mind, but his friends insist that he will be in the running.—Carson Appeal.

PURSE PRESENTED TO FATHER FLYNN AT A RECEPTION

END OF A THREE YEARS' PASTORATE CLOSED WITH A PUBLIC RECEPTION.

Father William J. Flynn took his departure this morning for Salt Lake after filling the pastorate of the Catholic church for the past three years. He was accompanied to the station by many parishioners who wished him a safe journey. At the church yesterday morning at both masses the pastor spoke feelingly of his many years of service in Tonopah and stated he was happy to remark that the parish was left in better shape than when he took charge.

In the evening there was a reception at Knights of Columbus hall, rendered by the Knights of Columbus and the ladies of the Sanctuary society. During the evening a well filled purse was presented the retiring clergyman, who spoke of his regrets on leaving such a congregation. Father Jerome Doss, successor to the pastorate, also spoke of the impression created by the generous spirit of the people to whom he had come as a stranger, but who had made him welcome so warm that he felt already reconciled to the sagebrush.

Remarks were made by Thomas J. Lynch, J. J. Degan, Dan. Robb, J. A. Sanders and F. J. Cavanagh. The musical program included selections by a quartette consisting of Messrs. McGinn, Ethier, Roach and Degan, Mrs. Osborne and Messrs. Murray and O'Gara.
